- A Collaboration between Two Worlds

It was by sharing their Inspirations that the Two MOFs (Meilleurs Ouvriers de France) discovered an Obvious Connection: Asia. Sandrine Tessier presented Emmanuel Ryon with the Masterful Work—Over 400 Hours of Labor—that earned him his MOF Title: a Reinterpretation of a Painting by Utagawa Kuniyoshi; not to mention Three Generations of Work with Japan. Emmanuel then confided in Her His Own Attachment to Japan and Asia, nurtured by Nearly Sixty Trips, which inform His Work on Fragrances, Purity, and Textures. Their Perspectives Immediately Aligned: the Pursuit of the Perfect Gesture, a Taste for Detail, and Inspiration from the Land of the Rising Sun.

- Biographies

* Emmanuel RYON

World Pastry Champion in 1999 and Meilleur Ouvrier de France (Best Craftsman of France) in Ice Cream in 2000, Emmanuel Ryon is recognized as One of the Contemporary Masters of Frozen Pastry. Trained in Prestigious Establishments and Head Chef for Anne-Sophie Pic, the Louis Vuitton Foundation, and the Pouchkine (Among Others), he reinvents French Classics through the Lens of Cold. In 2015, he founded "Une Glace à Paris", where he creates All his Desserts in his Parisian Workshop in the Heart of the Marais.

* Sandrine TESSIER

Coming from a Line of Enamel Artisans dating back to 1954, Sandrine Tessier trained at the Haute École de Joaillerie in Paris before becoming a Master Craftswoman in Enameling on Precious Metals. In 2019, she earned the Title of Meilleur Ouvrier de France (Best Craftsman of France) thanks to a Masterful Work created in Grand Feu Enamel (Cloisonné, Painted Enamel). Her Parisian Workshop, specializing in Fine Jewelry and Fine Watchmaking, collaborates with the Most Prestigious French and International Houses. Working with Grisaille, Cloisonné, and Plique-à-Jour, she perpetuates a Rare Savoir-Faire, passed down through Three Generations. Today, she works alongside her Mother and Sister in their Parisian and Limousin Workshops, the Latter of which holds the "Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant" (Living Heritage Company) Label.
